The policies and expectations for all your 11th grade classes: Core classes (ELA, Math, Science, Social Science) will be given and covered during first rotation.

Prometheus Redux 2020 - Remote Learning

11th Grade - First Semester Project

Project Description

Students will engage in a dynamic group-driven project exploring the many facets of sustainable energy resources. Using their acquired knowledge from extensive research, students will explore alternative energy sources and conservation awareness that could help mitigate our dependency on fossil fuels. Prometheus Redux will require students to exercise critical thinking skills, utilize persuasion tactics, and synthesize accumulated data to ultimately present their answer to the...

Essential Question

What is the best pathway to a sustainable and conservable energy future?

---

Class Materials: Chemistry - Mr. Pang

- Post-it (note taking)
- Spiral notebooks (note taking)
- Scientific Calculator
- pen/pencil
- Discovery Education Online Textbook (will be covered during class)
- Printed copy of the periodic table with notes and color code (will be covered during class)

Chemistry Learning Expectations - Mr. Pang

- Come to class on time.
  - Typical Daily Agenda (may vary depending on project needs)
    - Attendance Question
    - Live Instructions (instructional style and deliver may vary depending on subject)
    - Q & A
    - Complete Assignment (normally due the next day by 3:00pm)
    - Attend Office Hours
  - Do not miss any lessons.
  - Make up missing instructions by using the office hours.
  - Create a clear work area for meets and assignments at home.
  - Have a printed copy of the periodic table with notes handy.
  - Complete your assignments on time.
  - Pay attention to the weekly agenda.
  - Communicate with the teacher regarding any issues.
    - I am flexible when a student is responsible enough to communicate their concerns in a timely manner.

Class Materials: U.S. History - Mr. Navaroli

- Interactive Notebook: Students MUST obtain their own 70-page, single-subject, college-ruled, spiral notebook by the scheduled third class meeting (Thursday, Aug. 13).
“Notes” during class must be handwritten in your notebook, NOT typed on a computer.
- Post-its Notes (optional - use them if you like to tag pages in your Interactive Notebook)
- Pencil(s) and/or Pen(s), or both - your choice.
- Highlighters (optional - use them to make highlights in your Interactive Notebook)
- A box of Crayons (yes, a box of Crayons - for use in your Interactive Notebook)

Class Learning Expectations: U.S. History - Mr. Navaroli

- Arrive to class online, on time, with your materials out and ready – class begins on time, everyday.
- All cell phones must be stored out of sight while in the online sessions. No exceptions.
- No food or drink, other than water, for class sessions... yes, even online. Focus on content.
- Restrooms should be used during breaks between classes - this applies for online instruction as well, plan your bathroom breaks ahead of time please.

- “It is best for you to attend class each and every day” - this is Success Rule #1.
  - “Every assignment counts” - Success Rule #2 (It is best if you complete all assignments, on time)
  - Punctuality and a regular presence in class are critical to student success.
  - Excessive tardies and absences could adversely affect student success.
  - VACATIONS are NOT considered “excused” absences – missed school work due to a vacation will be given a zero with no opportunity for making up missed credit.
  - There is a Final Exam during the final week of both semesters this school year and cannot be made up if missed (except for a medical emergency) – therefore, students should not miss this exam. Please obtain a copy of the school calendar as school begins and schedule vacations in a manner that puts “School First”.

Foreign Language / Physical Education

Español 3: Sra. Poskitt y Sra. Bazaldua

- Class starts promptly at 1:30 p.m.
- Check in within the first 10 minutes of class unless you have notified your instructor prior to the class. You will be marked absent if you do not follow this policy.
- If you join later than the first 10 minutes, you will be marked tardy.
- You are expected to stay in the Meet during the entire class time (30-45 minute)
- For instruction, expect to see your teacher live every class meet
  - You will need to access different websites for assignments and group activities. Your teacher will explain more and provide links in your google classroom.
  - Expect an exit question to complete at the end of each class
  - Expect homework after every class

CLASS TEXTS/RESOURCES

Realidades 1 and 2 (Online access)

- Pearson Publishing
- Voces online program
- Flango Reading Online
- Conjuguemos
- Boom

TAREA: is designed to help you practice the lessons from class. Homework is practice for YOU. So please do it. You will have a variety of assignments.

EXAMENES: involve vocabulary, grammar, verb conjugations, short stories and cultural questions.

PROYECTOS: These will vary especially during online learning. If submitted late, you will automatically lose 25 points.

- If you are absent on the actual due date, please submit it early.

TRABAJO TARDE: Will not be accepted unless the office has excused the absence within 24 hours of the absence. In accordance with the policy, for any excused absence, students will have the same number of days in which they were absent to make up work.

AUSENCIAS: It is the responsibility of the student to get the make-up work when they have been absent (for excused absences). The Student Handbook determines how many days they have to turn in make-up work. (e.g. 1 calendar school day for each day missed. Thus, if they are absent on Monday but in school on Tuesday, they should get the make-up work Tuesday even if they wouldn't have had Spanish that day. It will be due on Wednesday.)

TUTORIA: Tutoring is available for all students during office hours.
